

REPORTING SUITE

Senwes' integrated report provides a succinct overview of the group's strategies, risks, opportunities, corporate governance, operational activities and financial performance for the financial year ended 30 April 2021. This report, supported by the suite of online publications, provides a holistic overview of the group's activities and is available on Senwes' website at www.senwes.co.za.

Related media coverage

For related media coverage, such as press releases or radio interviews with Senwes' Group CEO, visit <http://senwes.co/results21>

IR and AFS enquiries or feedback

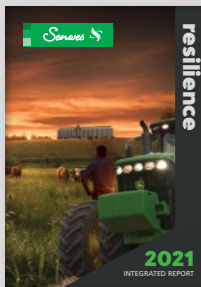

Corné Kruger (Group Chief Financial Officer)
Telephone: 018 464 7476

SR and AGM enquiries or feedback

Elmarie Joynt (Company Secretary and Chief Legal Counsel)
Telephone: 018 464 7104

REPORTING PRINCIPLES AND GUIDELINES

-  The International Integrated Reporting Framework
-  South African Companies Act 71 of 2008, as amended
-  King Code of Governance Principles for South Africa (King IV™) (applied as far as practically possible)
-  International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS)
-  Department of Trade and Industry's Codes for Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment
-  G4 Sustainability Guidelines

IR

An integrated report which provides a holistic view of how Senwes creates value, with extracts from the annual financial statements.

AFS

The annual financial statements of the group which provide an in-depth analysis of the group's financial results and performance.

CONTENTS

1 INTRODUCTION

- 1 Theme
- 2 Reporting Suite
- 4 Responding to the impact of Covid-19

5 OVERVIEW

- 6 About our integrated report
- 8 365-review
- 10 Senwes brand
- 12 Key features by forms of capital

13 THE BUSINESS

- 14 Reflections by the Chairman
- 16 Value-creating business model
- 18 Business overview
- 26 How Senwes creates value using the six capitals
- 36 Creating value for stakeholders

45 STRATEGIC AND OPERATING CONTEXT

- 46 Reflections by the Group Chief Executive
- 50 Group strategy

57 CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

- 58 Corporate governance report
- 70 Senwes board of directors
- 72 Remuneration report

79 FINANCIAL REVIEW

- 80 Report by the Group Chief Financial Officer
- 84 Managing risk in the agricultural sector
- 92 Senwes Group 5-year review
- 96 Financial statements
- 102 Glossary of terms
- 104 Corporate information

Senwes is committed to creating value for all its stakeholders by conducting sustainable business through ethical dealings, protecting the environment and contributing to the socio-economic development of its employees and the societies in which it conducts business.

SR

A web-based digital sustainability report provides a summarised overview of the group's sustainability activities, strategies and ongoing processes.

AGM

A notice which informs shareholders of the company about the matters which will be discussed at the annual general meeting, is available online.

